With expression

When the cru - el war is o - ver, And the boys come march-ing home, And our Many a sol - dier boy is sing-ing, That dear Old Ken-tuck - y Home, And they hearts are filled with glad - ness, For they'll care no more to roam, We will dream of all their loved ones, Far a - cross the o - cean foam They will love to hear the sto - ries, Of our he - roes brave and true, How they fight and pray for vic - tory, Whil'st they hear the can - non's roar Long-ing fought and bled to save us, And the Old Red White and Blue. for to see dear moth - er, And the old fam - il - lar shore.

REFRAIN

From the plains of old Ne - bras - ka, From the moun - tains to the sea They are From the shores of Cal - i - for - nia, To the rock bound coast of Maine, They have rit.

 march - ing with the col - ors, And our Stars and Stripes will be, Floa - ting an - swered to the sum - mons, And our hopes are not in vain, We shall with the Al - lied Ban - ners, May their cour-age nev - er lag, Ev - ry have a world u - ni - ted, Af - ter all this war and strife, And may man will do his du - ty, To pro - tect our dear old Flag.

 God pro - tect our he - roes, Whil'st they bat - tle for the Right.
